Once the river had accomplished its watering of the garden in Eden, it parted into four heads.
This multiplication of watering is an ongoing creative activity of God. (Rev 22:1) It is a permanent flowing river of pure water that proceeds eternally from Godâ€™s throne. REV 22:1 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal,

As a border, the river comes to symbolize escape—crossing the river means leaving the community. Because it takes the life of the four-year-old Caleb, the river also symbolizes the danger inherent in that escape.
