Fearless Jones Series by Walter Mosley - Goodreads - Fearless Jones has a lot in common with Easy, but he also has some characteristics reminiscent of Socrates Fortlow, the "hero" of Always Outnumbered, Always Outgunned. When the story begins, the reader is transported to the Los Angeles of the 1950s, a dangerous place and time for a black man. But Paris Minton seems to have beaten the odds.

Walter Mosley eBooks - eBooks.com - Yes, Walter Moselyâ€™s Fearless Jones is classic noir, although the pigmentation of the protagonist, Paris Minton, and the eponymous Fearless make that designation almost a pun. Mosely, of course, is a powerful writer of color and yet, portrays 1950s racism, even out of the South, in a stark black-and-white (more like white vs. black) set of images.

Official Website of Author Walter Mosley Â» Books - Fearless Jones is a dazzling new thriller, set in 1950s L.A. and featuring the most engaging hero since Easy Rawlins. Kirkus Reviews [F]ans starved for the mean streets of Watts during Mosley's sabbatical from mystery writing will rejoice in a prose style richer and more artfully stripped down than ever in the genre's first must-read of the year.
