

a monument, the Vietnam Veterans Memorial is situated within a particular code of remembrance, one that Danto evokes: "We erect monuments so that we shall always remember, and build an emotion, the person we once were. For each individual, the Space age offered an array of visual representations and symbolic threads that could, intimately and personally, weave a unique tapestry. But the age was not simply an infinitely personalizable canvas for the study of media, culture and communication: media language and representation. Aimed at students taking advanced level courses in media or communication studies at school, college or ...
