Suisman (guest post)* At the turn of the twentieth century, Bert Williams and George Walker were two of the most sought after comedians on the American stage, renowned for their storytelling, singing, dancing, and pantomime. Bert Williams and George Walker - Library of Congress - George Walker (1872 or 1873 – 1911) was an American vaudevillian, actor, and producer. In 1893, in San Francisco, Walker at the age of 20 met Bert Williams, who was a year younger. The two young men became performing partners. Walker and Williams appeared in The Gold Bug (1895), Clorindy (1898), The Policy Player (1899), Sons of Ham (1900), In Dahomey (1903), Abyssinia (1906), and Bandanna ...
