This strong declaration means that every aspect of man's salvation is from God and is entirely dependent upon God. The only contribution that we make is the sin that was laid upon Jesus Christ at the cross. The Apostle Paul affirmed this when he wrote, "From Him and through Him ... Mon, 30 Nov 2020 20:11:00 GMT TULIP and The Doctrines of Grace - Ligonier Ministries - The following excerpt is taken from the full article, available here. In order to understand Augustine's theology of God's sovereign saving grace, one must first understand Augustine's view of the will. According to Augustine (and all the catholic church after him) the will was free, but only insofar as it would choose what it desired.13 [1] Wed, 10 Jun 2020 20:01:00 GMT God's Grace in Augustine's Theology - Julian

Repentance unto life is a saving grace, whereby a sinner, out of a true sense of his sin, and apprehension of the mercy of God in Christ, doth, with grief and hatred of his sin, turn from it unto God, with full purpose of, and endeavour after, new obedience.
