Mayher - Why Has College Admissions Become So Competitive? A pplying to college was a pretty simple process for members of the Baby Boom generation born between 1946 and 1964. Those bound for a four-year college usually planned to go to a school in their home state or one fairly close by; a college 300 miles from home was con-sidered by many to be far away. Tue, 14 Jul 2020
