between the Generations ... - Acts 20:7-12 New International Version (NIV) Eutychus Raised From the Dead at Troas. 7 On the first day of the week we came together to break bread. Paul spoke to the people and, because he intended to leave the next day, kept on talking until midnight. 8 There were many lamps in the upstairs room where we were meeting. 9 Seated in a window was a young man named Eutychus, who was sinking into sleep. He fell down from the roof and lay dead. 10 Paul went down, knelt over him, and said, "Don't be afraid, for you are still alive." 11 He got up and ate. 12 Then he went back to his room. 13 The next morning Paul said to the people, "I must go now. But I will see you again, if God will. Good-bye." 14 He got up and went back to his room. 15 The next day he said to the people, "I must go now. But I will see you again, if God will. Good-bye." 16 He got up and went back to his room. 17 The next day he said to the people, "I must go now. But I will see you again, if God will.
