Mon, 28 Sep 2020 22:52:00 GMT The Rebels of Ireland - Audiobook (abridged) | Listen ... - The English conquest of Ireland during the 16th-century saw the Plantation of Munster occur, and in the early 17th century the Plantation of Ulster. In the case of Ulster this was the result of the confiscating of vast amounts of forfeited land from the Irish lords who fled in the Flight of the Earls in 1607. Of this territory 20% was granted to "deserving" native Irish lords and clans. Irish Rebellion of 1641 - Wikipedia - The Rebels of Ireland is unusual in that it commences quite late in the day - 1534 and continues through Irish independence in 1922 - a mere four centuries! In Rutherford's standard style follows the fortunes and machinations of several families through Irish history. We meet Oliver Cromwell, Robert Emmet, Wolfe Tone, Daniel O'Connell, and ...
