Chapter Text. A moon into their marriage, Brienne knocked on the door of Jaime's study before slipping in without waiting for his answer. At this hour, she should with their steward, making the rounds to the stables, kennels, armoury, kitchens, and everywhere else, ensuring things were in order as they should. Sat,

Chapter Text. The next morning, Jaime gathered the sheets of their bed himself, and when one of the servants came to put on new sheets, he watched her do so with rapt attention, at the way she expertly pulled and tightened the fabric over the mattress. Sat, 28

Did you identify with any of the characters? Discuss which ones and, if so, why. Throughout The Threadbare Heart, Lily and Tom alternate between cherishing their knowledge of each other and wondering if they are capable of knowing each other at all. What does it mean to truly know someone? The Threadbare Heart is told from multiple perspectives, including Lily's husband, Tom, and their sons and daughter in law. This helps the reader see all sides to the story. It's a reminder that most situations don't feature good guys and bad guys, just people with different ideas of how they want to live their lives.
