Washington, D.C. was planned before it was built. Pierre L'Enfant drew a plan for the city that said where all the streets, parks, and important buildings would be. Unlike most cities in the United States, D.C. has many roundabouts or traffic circles.
The city was supposed to have long and wide avenues, and many open spaces for monuments and parks. The National Mall is an example of this. Tue, 24 Nov
